ITRC Meeting Code of Conduct

The ITRC Meeting Code of Conduct details the expectations and obligations of attendees at ITRC Meetings. All ITRC members, as well as staff and contractors, are required to conduct themselves consistent with the ITRC Meeting Code of Conduct. Violations of the ITRC Meeting Code of Conduct will be investigated and may lead to termination of ITRC membership.

When attending an ITRC Meeting, you agree to:

- Promote the mission of ITRC and uphold its reputation.
- Treat others with respect, inclusivity, and consideration, recognizing that this event is a place for diversity of thought, organization, and individuals.
- Maintain high standards of integrity and professional conduct.
- Conduct yourself in a manner that is beneficial for team consensus and collaboration.
- Communicate openly with respect for others, avoiding personal attacks.
- Be respectful and courteous to other ITRC members and staff.
- Not disparage a company, product, technology, or any other entity.
- Not engage in harassment or discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, or disability.
- Be mindful of your surroundings and others. Alert event staff if you notice any discriminatory, harassing, aggressive, or exclusionary behavior or speech as soon as possible.
- Respect the rules and policies of the meeting venue, hotel, or any other associated venue.

ITRC reserves the right to update this Meeting Code of Conduct.
