

Industry Affiliates Program (IAP)

The Industry Affiliates Program provides opportunities for private sector companies, trade associations, and their employees to participate on active ITRC project and training teams.

“The IAP has been a wonderful opportunity to connect with and learn from fellow industry partners and state regulators, especially as an early-career professional. I have been able to contribute my geochemistry knowledge to the Solid Mining Waste Reuse Team, as well as benefit from the unique expertise of Team members from different regions and practices, to create valuable guidance I can reference in my future projects.”

~ Samantha Fuchs, Geosyntec Consultants, Inc.
